Coronavirus Relief Disclosure

Along with its parent company, AMDG Financial applied for and received a loan in the aggregate principal amount of $59,499 under the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) pursuant to the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. The PPP is a forgivable loan available to businesses that, because of potential ongoing economic uncertainty, desire to retain and continue paying employees and intend to use the loan to support ongoing operations. Market volatility and state-issued "stay at home" and related orders, including work-place protocols for safely conducting business, may require us to incur future significant unanticipated operating expenses. Like thousands of small businesses that have been adversely affected by the pandemic, AMDG Financial took advantage of the CARES Act's support and obtained a forgivable PPP loan to meet these extraordinary operational and financial challenges. AMDG Financial intends to use the proceeds of the PPP loan to pay for payroll and other expenses specifically permitted under the PPP.
